2025 Position Recognition Renewal
Application Packet

July 2024

Application packet complies with the National Incident Management System. Completion of the forms is voluntary; however, lack thereof will prevent processing. The Department of Military Affairs may use the personally identifiable information it obtains from you on these forms for purposes other than for which it is being collected.

2025 Position Recognition Renewal Process

As provided by Wisconsin's Communications Unit Standard Operating Guidelines (SOG), the recognition renewal process for the various Communication Unit positions will occur every five (5) calendar years beginning in 2020.

Individuals who were recognized prior to January 1st, 2024, will need to complete the renewal process beginning in 2025. Those who were recognized after January 1st, 2024, will not need to complete the renewal process until 2030.

Renewal applications must be received no later than December 31 of the renewal year (e.g. 12/31/2025, 12/31/2030, 12/31/2035).

Application Type

- Check Renewal Status box and position being applied for (only one position per application)

Applicant Information

- Name: Your full legal name
- Certifying Agency: The agency providing workers compensation and other liability-related protections
- Certifying Agency Address
- County: If you serve in multiple counties, list each one
- 24/7 Telephone: Note the preferred number to reach you after business hours

Agency Certification

- This section certifies you to serve in a COMU position as an agent of your agency.
- This section assures an incident commander that the deployed person is covered by employment-related protections such as workers compensation and liability insurance.
- This section must be completed and signed by your agency head or authorized representative from your agency.

Materials to be submitted with the applicant's renewal packet

- Completed form DMA-2103 COMU Position Qualification Application
- Completed form DMA-2102 COMU Incident/Event/Exercise Experience Record for any incident, event, or exercise that the applicant participated in prior to renewal but after the individual was originally recognized or five (5) years, whichever is less. Examples of tasks to include can be found at the end of this packet.
- Available supplemental ICS documentation for activities listed in the experience record. Examples include:
 - IAP – Incident Action Plan
 - ICS 201 – Incident Briefing
